

HIFN ANISHINAABEK WIIDOSENDIWAK COMMUNITY SURVEY

The Henvey Inlet First Nation (HIFN) Anishinaabek Wiidosendiwak initiative (formerly the HIFN Child and Family Wellbeing Project) seeks to reclaim jurisdiction over the care and protection of HIFN's children and families.

This survey is a way to ensure that HIFN voices are being heard and that the needs of the community are properly represented in drafting Henvey's Child and Family Wellbeing Law.

Enter to Win
over $2000 of prizes!

For each individual person, over the age of 13 years, who takes the time to complete this survey, their name will be collected and put into a prize pool. The winning names will be drawn at future community engagements.

Please note that all responses to this survey will be kept anonymous.

