

Overall Band Organizational Structure

- Shown on the left existing Band Services are unchanged.
- Shown on the right, economic development activities are separate from leasing, shown in the middle,
- Chief and Council elect or appoint qualified directors to each new corporation
- Chief and Council are shareholders in the Bekanon Lease Management Corporation
- Henvey Inlet First Nation and the Bekanon Lease Management Corporation join in the Limited Partnership to manage leased lands. The Band is the Limited Partner and the Lease Management Corporation is the General Partner.

Organizational Structure for Bekanon Lease Management Corporation Only

- This Partnership is limited to managing leases on behalf of the Band.
- Leasing Income is drawn into Band Revenues
- Henvey Inlet First Nation is the Limited Partner and the Bekanon Lease Management Corporation is the General Partner
- Liabilities of this partnership do not affect the Band or the Bekanon Development Corporation.
- Business Management Workshops are recommended to learn how to limit the Band's exposure to unspecified liabilities created during normal operations.
- If the First Nations Land Management Act is implemented, the relationship with Indian and Northern Affairs is removed.