Hello,
My name is Kyla McQuabbie, my spirit name is Northern star Warrior Woman. I am from the beaver and bear clan. I come from the big garden (our home).
I am 30 years old, and I have lived on reserve my whole life. I am a mother of 3 beautiful children whom I have raised on our homelands and will continue to do so.
I currently work for Magnetawan First Nation as the Chiefs' Assistant, Finance Assistant, and Housing Assistant, so I do have experience working with agreements between Canada and the First Nation.

During my tenure I would like to see:

- Our community united
- An inclusive community: treat everyone fairly no matter where you are from or family name.
- A healthy, strong community
- Community engagements and events
- Building strong relationships through networking within other business sectors
- Healthy working environments within our community

A vote for me is a vote for change for the better!

In my youth, I would sit with our elders and listen to the stories and teachings that they shared.

The stories taught me the values of our people and community.

Elders would share how life used to be. The importance of these stories was to guide us on how to keep our culture strong. I was told that I would one day be a leader and would help my community.

Most of the elders have passed on to the spirit world, but I still hold their knowledge and heart.

Without my ancestors, I believe I would not be the strong, independent Anishnaabe Kwe that I am. Without their knowledge and sharing, I would not have the strong skills and mindset I have today.

I am grateful for our ancestors and what they endured during their lifetime. They gave us a better life full of opportunities and the needed skills to survive.

"No matter what people tell you, words and ideas can change the world."
